More Telephoning—Less Letter Writing

MAYBE you're one of those business men who are always wondering where you are going to find time to clean up your day's work.

You read a batch of letters and dictate and sign replies to them, and along comes the postman with more. You find that much of your day is taken up with correspondence. You have little time left for planning and for real executive work.

Why do you do it? One letter breeds another—particularly out-of-town letters—and thus starts a chain of correspondence that drags along for months. Don't write—telephone.

Below are Station-to-Station day rates from Richmond to a few of the larger points:

Newport News	50c	Norfolk	60c
Danville	90c	Roanoke	95c
Lynchburg	65c	Suffolk	55c
